
2018 Steam Trap Express RFQ

Consumers Energy Business Energy Efficiency Programs offer rebates, training and energy information services to commercial and industrial customers to reduce energy use in new and existing buildings.

We are soliciting a request for qualification (RFQ) to participate in the Steam Trap Express offering which focuses on installation of steam traps in small commercial locations. (example: laundry facilities)

Steam Trap Express Program:

- Eligible for special incentive offering for select market segment (Small Commercial) for failed open trap replacement/repair.
- Utilization of Consumers Energy steam trap leak detection audit services.
- Added to list of steam trap service providers and eligible for Trade Ally benefits.
- Consumers Energy or 3rd party leak detection audits are required to identify failed open traps.

To become a Steam Trap Express Trade Ally, you'll need to do the following:

- Complete required information on Pg.2 and Pg.3 of RFQ Document.
- Attend a three-hour trade ally training session.
- Complete at least one paid incentive project within current program year.

To maintain your Trade Ally status, you'll need to do the following:

- Submit and complete at least one paid incentive project to fZV Steam Trap Express Program per year.
- Ensure that all company representatives are properly trained on the Business Energy Efficiency Programs and one representative attends a mandatory Trade Ally training event on an annual basis.
- Provide services in accordance with the Consumers Energy Business Energy Efficiency Programs Policies and Procedures.
- Maintain good customer service performance and represent the Business Energy Efficiency Programs appropriately.
- Complete Trade Ally Application annually, ensuring all company information is current for program year.

The Consumers Energy Business Energy Efficiency Programs team will review all applications, verify the information provided and contact the references listed. If any information is missing or inadequate, we will contact you to request an update. You will be notified via email upon application approval.
